WELCOME TO CHICHESTER FRINGE!

Chichester Fringe is back for its 6th year with another two weeks of performances at venues across the city. From new musicals and plays to stand-up, family friendly shows, comedy, cabaret and music nights to poetry and spoken word, this is your guide to Fringe 2026. Fringe takes place between 30 May and 14 June 2026 across the city.

HOW IT WORKS

USING THE BROCHURE

The brochure works in two ways: detailed event information is arranged by genre on pages 4 to 17, but you can also search using the day-by-day calendar on page 18.

BUYING YOUR TICKETS

Each venue has a different capacity, so it's best to buy tickets early to secure a spot. If you need help buying online or can't use the internet, call 07523 823116. This number is monitored by volunteers of Chichester Fringe.

You can buy your tickets online in advance on our website using the QR code on the front page or visiting www.chichesterfringe.co.uk. Or you can pay on the door. Both standard and concessionary tickets are available for most events. Concessions are for NHS/Students/Blue Light Card holders and over 60s. See our website for details.

THANK YOU

As volunteers, at Chichester Fringe we're passionate in supporting and promoting local and new performers which is why they get paid to perform. Last year, we were glad to receive an Arts, Sports and Science award from Chichester City Council in recognition of the impact we have made of developing the arts in our city. We now need your support - by coming to see a show or two.

We can't wait to see you there!
The Chichester Fringe Team.

TICKETING INFO

You will need to bring an electronic or printed copy of your ticket with you in order to gain access to the event space. Please note that a portion of the income from tickets goes towards paying our artists as well as the venue and supporting Chichester Fringe for the future.

REFUNDS & EXCHANGES

We offer no refunds on tickets. If you're unable to attend an event after purchasing a ticket, we would be happy for you to pass on your ticket to someone else to attend the event instead - just make sure they have an electronic/printed copy of the ticket with them.

Exchanges may be made on a case-by-case basis depending on availability. You should email info@chichesterfringe.co.uk for assistance. Please be aware that this inbox is monitored by volunteers, so do bear with us.

You will be charged a small additional administration fee by our e-commerce provider when purchasing.

The full cost of your event ticket (less a small website fee if booked online) goes straight to Chichester Fringe and supports us in creating an arts fringe for all.

Living the Dream - A Bus Driver's Lament

WHEN? Sat 30 May at 14:00 | WHERE? One-o-Four | £10 / £8

"A career in bus driving was not my childhood dream..."
Life doesn't always go to plan, but you make the best of it you can.
Join Tony as he shares a light-hearted tale of the highs and lows of working in public transport, how he got there and what drives him on.

Informal Complaints of The Human Resource

WHEN? Sat 30 May at 16:00 | WHERE? One-o-Four | £10 / £8

"When does a life stop being lived? When does a life stop being loved? When does a life... end? Does it ever end?"
In an age where technology consumes our lives, this piece explores the many complex faults of the mortal resource of humanity.

Dutybound

WHEN? Sat 30 May at 17:30 | WHERE? One-o-Four | £10 / £8

A musical. "At the elite Rosemont Academy, legacy decides who rises and who disappears. Cordelia is trapped in a future she never chose, Juliette longs for the inheritance she can't have and Alison reinvents herself to survive. As rivalries sharpen and ballots burn, the fight for the crown seat threatens to tear their sisterhood apart."

The Party Guest by Jacquie Penrose

WHEN? Sat 30 May at 19:00 | WHERE? One-o-Four | £10 / £8

Alan, Jack and Lulu once starred together in a production of 'The Cherry Orchard'. Now, years later, they all meet again by chance after their lives have taken very different paths, with only Alan still clinging on in the "business" in small walk-on parts. They tell very different stories about their relationship all those years ago, and their reunion is not what any of them would have hoped.

Best Wishes, Kind Regards

WHEN? Sat 30 May at 19:00 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

"What do you say? What do you actually want to say? Why don't you? Because you're scared." A play about the fear of letting someone in, of being vulnerable to rejection, about what it means to be in a relationship that you know is going to fail and therefore grieving it when it has only just begun. It is about what you want to say, versus what you allow yourself to say.

Improv the Dead

WHEN? Sat 30 May at 20:30 | WHERE? One-o-Four | £10 / £8

An improvised undead apocalypse movie, created before your eyes using your suggestions! It's up to you who lives, dies and un-dies when the zombies are in town. Expect thrills, chills, and lots of laughs! Plus tons of silly improvised games courtesy of our behind-the-scenes special features...

A Criminal Melody

WHEN? Sat 30 May at 20:45 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

A Criminal Melody is a comedy spoof of film noir detectives that satirises the criminal justice system. It follows Detective Inspector Paulethiast Razmataz, visited by his ex-wife's ghost and three "Criminal Spirits." The show blends A Christmas Carol with absurd detective tropes.

735

 Commissioning Grant Winner 2026

WHEN? Thu 04 June at 19:00 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

"The future of working life, today! We here at Corporate Management Solutions are delighted to invite you – yes, you – to attend one of our exclusive, behind-the-scenes presentations of the proper workplace of the not-too-distant future. Get your tickets ASAP for a truly unique and engaging experience you won't soon forget!"

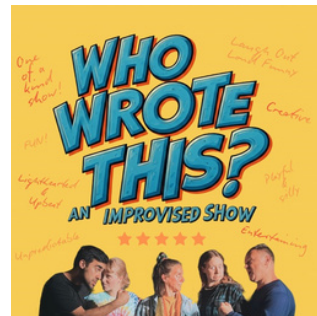

WHO WROTE THIS?

 Commissioning Grant Winner 2026

WHEN? Thu 04 June at 20:45 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

A fast, fun one-hour improv comedy show where your suggestions shape every scene. Totally unscripted, always unpredictable - no two performances are ever the same. Audiences last year called it "hilarious, high-energy and brilliantly unpredictable" - and with every performance made up on the spot, no two shows are ever the same! Come and be part of the chaos.

Glitter, Guilt and Good Intentions: A Self-Help Cabaret

WHEN? Fri 05 June at 19:00 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

Belle Street Productions brings you a cabaret that blends humour, parodies and musical theatre in a 'frazzled rather than filtered' celebration of life's ups and downs. With laughter, killer harmonies, and a hint of self-deprecation, it's perfect for a fun night out. This feel-good show delights audiences from seasoned musical theatre lovers to first time cabaret goers alike.

If you need help buying online or can't use the internet, call 07523 823116. This number is monitored by volunteers of Chichester Fringe.

Trains In The Night

WHEN? Sat 06 June at 15:30 | WHERE? One-o-Four | £10 / £8

“Trains In The Night” is a sapphic musical following best friends Celine and Margot, who teeter between love and fear. When life, lovers and timing pull them apart, art brings them back together. It’s a story of longing, creation, and love that finds its way home.

Dead Doves and Lemons OR Everything You’ve Ever Wanted To Know About Fan Fiction (but were too afraid to ask)

WHEN? Sat 06 June at 17:00 | WHERE? One-o-Four | £10 / £8

Your loved one just came out as a fanfiction writer. Now what? Join us for an eclectic, hilarious, and heartfelt journey where we’ll explore how fanfiction came to be, why people like it, and why it’s a valid form of art. Maybe you’ll even write something!

Townfolk - A Community Song Cycle

£10 / £8

WHEN? Sun 07 June at 18:00 | WHERE? Chichester City Arts Centre

How long can one life last before it fades? Down a winding musical road, you’ll find the residents of a small town, each leading different lives and singing their separate stories. Let the Townfolk community take you on a heartfelt musical journey of love, friendship and harmony.

The Rat Race

WHEN? Sun 07 June at 19:00 | WHERE? JAM Cafe | £10 / £8

“Life is hard, take a card!” The Rat Race is a political boardgame; think Monopoly and The Game of Life have a child and that child is the anti-Christ. The audience are ‘players’, either racing to the ‘top’ of the capitalist ladder or working together for a socialist utopia.

Pigeons in Transit

WHEN? Tue 09 June at 21:00 | WHERE? One-o-Four | £10 / £8

A beautiful and bonkers music-filled one-woman show about how we make sense of the world — with climate change, conspiracy theories and... carrier pigeons! It’s heartfelt, surreal and full of great original songs with clarinet, electronic beats and autoharp. If you like quirky storytelling and live music that fires your imagination and tugs at your heart, this show is made for you.

YOUR SPACE - MAKE NOTES!

Acting Showcase

WHEN? Wed 10 June at 13:00 | WHERE? The ShowRoom | £1

A curated collection of monologues and duologues, showcasing the vibrant talent emerging from this year's graduating BA (Hons) Acting and BA (Hons) Acting for Contemporary Theatre students at the University of Chichester Conservatoire. Twenty actors present a diverse collection of powerful monologues and dynamic scenes on stage and screen.

Eurydice

£12 / £10

WHEN? 10-12 May (Multiple) at 19:00 | WHERE? The AMP Theatre

Presented by HSDC students. Forget the lyres and the robes. Expect a high-octane blend of live music, visceral movement and spoken word. In a world of fading memories and static, Eurydice must choose between the comfort of the shadows and the painful noise of the living.

This venue is in Waterlooville. Details can be found on our website.*

SIBLING DINNER

WHEN? Thu 11 June at 19:15 | WHERE? The Havana | £10 / £8

"Three brothers visit each other for their yearly tradition, SIBLING DINNER. The eldest. The middle. The youngest. Throughout the meal, secrets are revealed and their world gets turned inside out. Can the brotherly bond survive until the garlic bread is done?"

Closure Cabaret

WHEN? Thu 11 June at 20:30 | WHERE? The Havana | £10 / £8

"Time to hold on tight as we try to let go."

Maria Ansdell is Razmatisque, the ever-optimistic maître d' of love, resurrecting past lovers in a quest for closure. In this solo clown show, she plays the entire raucous line-up – pirates, rappers, cowboys and illusionists – with absurd character comedy and gleeful audience participation.

Just To Say!

WHEN? Thu 11 June at 20:45 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

"Ray is addicted to sending greeting cards, and she's here to get help. Over six sessions, can Ray defeat her devotion to doting? Can she cure her compulsion to compliment?" Just To Say! is a silly little show, with a big heart. A work of poetic storytelling and an uplifting love letter to language.

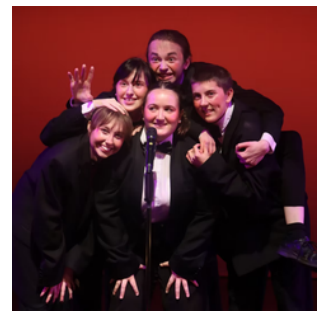

If you need help buying online or can't use the internet, call 07523 823116. This number is monitored by volunteers of Chichester Fringe.

InterACT Festival

WHEN? Fri 12 June All Day | WHERE? The ShowRoom | £1

InterACT is a daylong festival of performance work from the graduating students of BA (Hons) Acting For Contemporary Theatre, BA (Hons) Drama, Theatre & Directing & BA (Hons) Acting students at the University of Chichester Conservatoire.

The Graduates

WHEN? Fri 12 June at 19:30 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

The Graduates is a brand new coming-of-age musical following six friends trying to navigate life after graduation. With changing careers, new romances and friendship fallouts, will they survive the trials of their first year in adulthood? After all, this is the moment that starts the rest of their lives!

The Diary of John Marsh

£10 / £8

WHEN? Sat 13 June at 14:15 | WHERE? The Old Courtroom

The composer John Marsh lived and worked in Chichester for over fifty years. He was closely associated with the Cathedral and with St John's Chapel. This monologue seeks to present his final years in Chichester.

Darwin's Cleaner

£10 / £8

WHEN? Sat 13 June at 15:45 | WHERE? The Old Courtroom

Darwin's Cleaner is told by Hen, an imagined woman, who worked for Charles Darwin. Each scene takes us to different moments of her life as she learns, loves, suffers, fights for her independence.

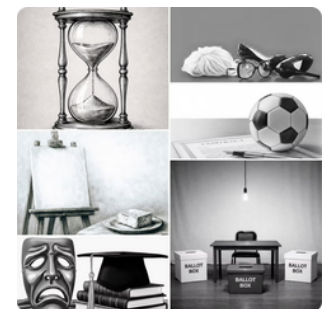

Tapestry

WHEN? Sat 13 June at 19:30 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

"Six plays. Countless moments. One shared human journey."

'Tapestry' interlaces six compelling short plays into a vivid patchwork of drama, humour, and intrigue. Through intimate snapshots of choice, chance and connection, these stories intertwine to surprise, entertain and reveal turning points that define us all.

Songs of the Seas and Rivers

WHEN? Sun 31 May at 17:30 | WHERE? Canal Cafe | £10 / £8

The Estuary Men are a five-piece vintage folk band of vocal harmonies, backed with whistle, harmonica, banjo and guitar. Some of our music is self-written and we often re-write historic maritime working songs to make them more interesting for modern audiences.

Oli Patient

WHEN? Sun 31 May at 19:15 | WHERE? Canal Cafe | £8 / £6

18-year-old Oli Patient is a singer-songwriter from Petersfield, Hampshire, known for his well-crafted original music both as a solo artist and with his band. An experienced loop-pedal performer and busker, Oli draws inspiration from artists such as KT Tunstall, Bob Dylan and Paolo Nutini.

The Last Trip Home

WHEN? Wed 03 June at 18:00 | WHERE? Canal Cafe | £10 / £8

Local folk group Cotillion has performed folk shows in many venues around Sussex.

"We present a nostalgic trip into the past in song/tune and prose, illustrating the change over from oxen and horses to mechanised farming and transport."

Music Night | Chichester Fringe

£10 / £8

WHEN? Thu 04 June at 19:30 | WHERE? The Ghost at the Feast

Three artists perform at the Chichester Fringe Music Night this year. David Robinson, aka The Cold Heart Revue, SammyG and James Lanigan – New Forest & its inspirations.

Echoes in the Tide

£10 / £8

WHEN? Fri 05 June at 19:00 | WHERE? New Park Studio

Local history, landscape, folklore and fantasy. Driftwood Troubadours present its unique songs each with projected backdrop images. Come and meet King Canute at Bosham & the Hawkhurst Gang (tried & hanged at Chichester). A light hearted journey through time and imagination. From sea to downs and into the clouds.

Laura L Page

WHEN? Fri 05 June at 19:15 | WHERE? JAM Cafe | £10 / £8

Singer songwriter with indie rock music, playing original songs with full five-piece band. Laura L Page is a singer songwriter from Haslemere, Surrey. Her influences are from rock, indie rock, indie pop and indie folk. Her first song "Old Wounds" was released back in December 2023 and her second song "I Can't Breathe" was released in June 2024, with more music in the pipeline.

Oving Folk: Folk Reimagined

WHEN? Sat 06 June at 19:30 | WHERE? The Nest | £15

"Join us to hear our eclectic ensemble playing and singing our own arrangements of folk classics reimagined with hints of jazz, blues, classical and gospel."

Oving Folk features voice, fiddle, cello, bass, guitar, keyboard, saxophone, trumpet, oboe, flute, recorders and bodhran... but not all at once!

Phil Green: Stripped

WHEN? Wed 03 June at 20:00 | WHERE? Canal Cafe | £10 / £8

"Phil has decided to be honest about his deepest life regrets and will lay them bare... well, most of them anyway." As heard on BBC Radio 4. Following three sold-out Edinburgh Fringe runs, multiple award nominations and over 20 million views on TikTok, Phil brings us his latest work-in-progress show.

Abbie Edwards: Knee Touch

£10 / £8

WHEN? Fri 05 June at 20:45 | WHERE? New Park Studio

"It's easy to romanticise a look your friend gives you, but do they really like you? It's easy to catastrophise when they start seeing someone else, but is it the end of the world?" Abbie Edwards, Leicester Square Runner Up New Comedian of the Year, takes you through her first love and how she almost ruined everything.

Kate-Lois Elliott: TRAD (Work in Progress)

WHEN? Fri 05 June at 20:45 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

Picking apart stories from history and her own life - and occasionally bursting into song - from Queen Victoria's alleged sex mania, to the real origin of "the average Joe," to Elliott's own deranged obsession with making it into the tabloids, this is a show for anyone who's ever wondered whether to lean in, burn it all down, or take up cross-stitch and see what happens.

Aidan Jones: Chopin's Nocturne

£10 / £8

WHEN? Sun 07 June at 19:15 | WHERE? Chichester City Arts Centre

"I grew up playing classical piano, but failed my conservatory audition at 18. After some time, I started stand-up in 2011. During the pandemic I came back to the piano and now I've combined them. It's my favourite piece, Chopin's Nocturne in Eb Major, presented with jokes by a bald Australian with a beard."

Hajar, Like Badger (Work in Progress)

WHEN? Tue 09 June at 19:30 | WHERE? One-o-Four | £10 / £8

In this work-in-progress of her debut hour, British-Iranian comic and singer Hajar J. Woodland weaves standup with musical comedy to explore what it means to find love and your voice when you're caught between two worlds.

Mark Daniels: That's Terrifying. Can We Brunch Now?

£10 / £8

WHEN? Wed 10 June at 19:00 | WHERE? New Park Studio

"Mark Daniels definitely isn't having a mid-life crisis and definitely isn't just ignoring it and the rest of the world's problems by having brunch instead." Join him for a stand-up hour full of satirical, self-deprecating wit about hard-hitting subjects from AI to Henry VIII to the Sugababes.

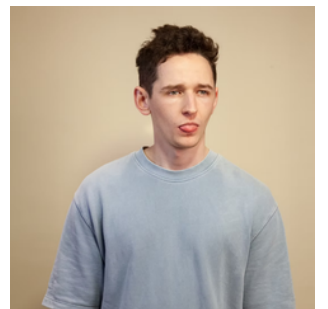

Milo Edwards – Work in Progress

£10 / £8

WHEN? Wed 10 June at 20:15 | WHERE? New Park Studio

Critically acclaimed comedian Milo Edwards is trying out some new jokes after a sell-out show at the Edinburgh Fringe 2025. "Edwards has quietly become one of the UK's smartest, most vital stand-ups" - Chortle... 'Near perfect.' ★★★★★ The Wee Review

Piran Armes is a Bit Weird (Work in Progress)

£10 / £8

WHEN? Wed 10 June at 21:30 | WHERE? New Park Studio

Piran has never quite fit in at any stage of his life. It's time to analyse his odd personality, determine the key moments from his past that shaped him and perhaps find out that maybe it's a bit more fun to be the weirdo. Piran Armes was the 2025 Winner Chichester Fringe New Act of the Year, 2025 Komedia New Act Semi Finalist and had three sellout shows at Brighton Fringe 2025.

Sketch Show Bingo!

WHEN? Thu 11 June at 19:00 | WHERE? The Nest | £12

Three-time Funny Women Award nominees Quirks & Foibles present their smash-hit sketch show after debuting at Edinburgh Fringe.

"Get your dabbers at the ready! It's bingo! But instead of numbers, it's hilarious comedy sketches, and the fun keeps rolling until someone gets bingo!"

BREATH - by Neil Sinclair

£10 / £8

WHEN? Thu 11 June at 19:15 & 21:45 | WHERE? New Park Studio

"One hour of top-quality stand-up comedy about fatherhood in the 21st century, and the quiet terror of trying to raise children, while barely understanding the country you live in... France."

Multi award winner Neil Sinclair has performed all over the world and trained with the great Philippe Gaulier.

Andrew White: What a Life (WIP)

£10 / £8

WHEN? Thu 11 June at 20:30 | WHERE? New Park Studio

"An imperfect guide to living right, dying happy, and appealing parking fines with a 76% success rate. Finding the funny in the wake of three wakes, Andrew remembers his lost loved ones and reflects on their lives in a hilarious, honest and heartwarming stand-up comedy show."

Comedy Night | Chichester Fringe

£12

WHEN? Fri 12 June at 19:30 | WHERE? The Ghost at the Feast

Three comedians perform at the Chichester Fringe Comedy Night this year. Phil Green, Dominique LeVack and Rodney Beckford.

A Room Full of Idiots

£10 / £8

WHEN? Sat 13 June at 17:00 | WHERE? The Old Courtroom

A Room Full of Idiots brings you a night of completely unscripted, improvised comedy where nothing is planned and anything can happen. Using audience suggestions, our performers create a series of short scenes filled with bold characters, unexpected twists, and ridiculous situations — all made up in the moment with no rehearsal and no safety net. Every show is different!
